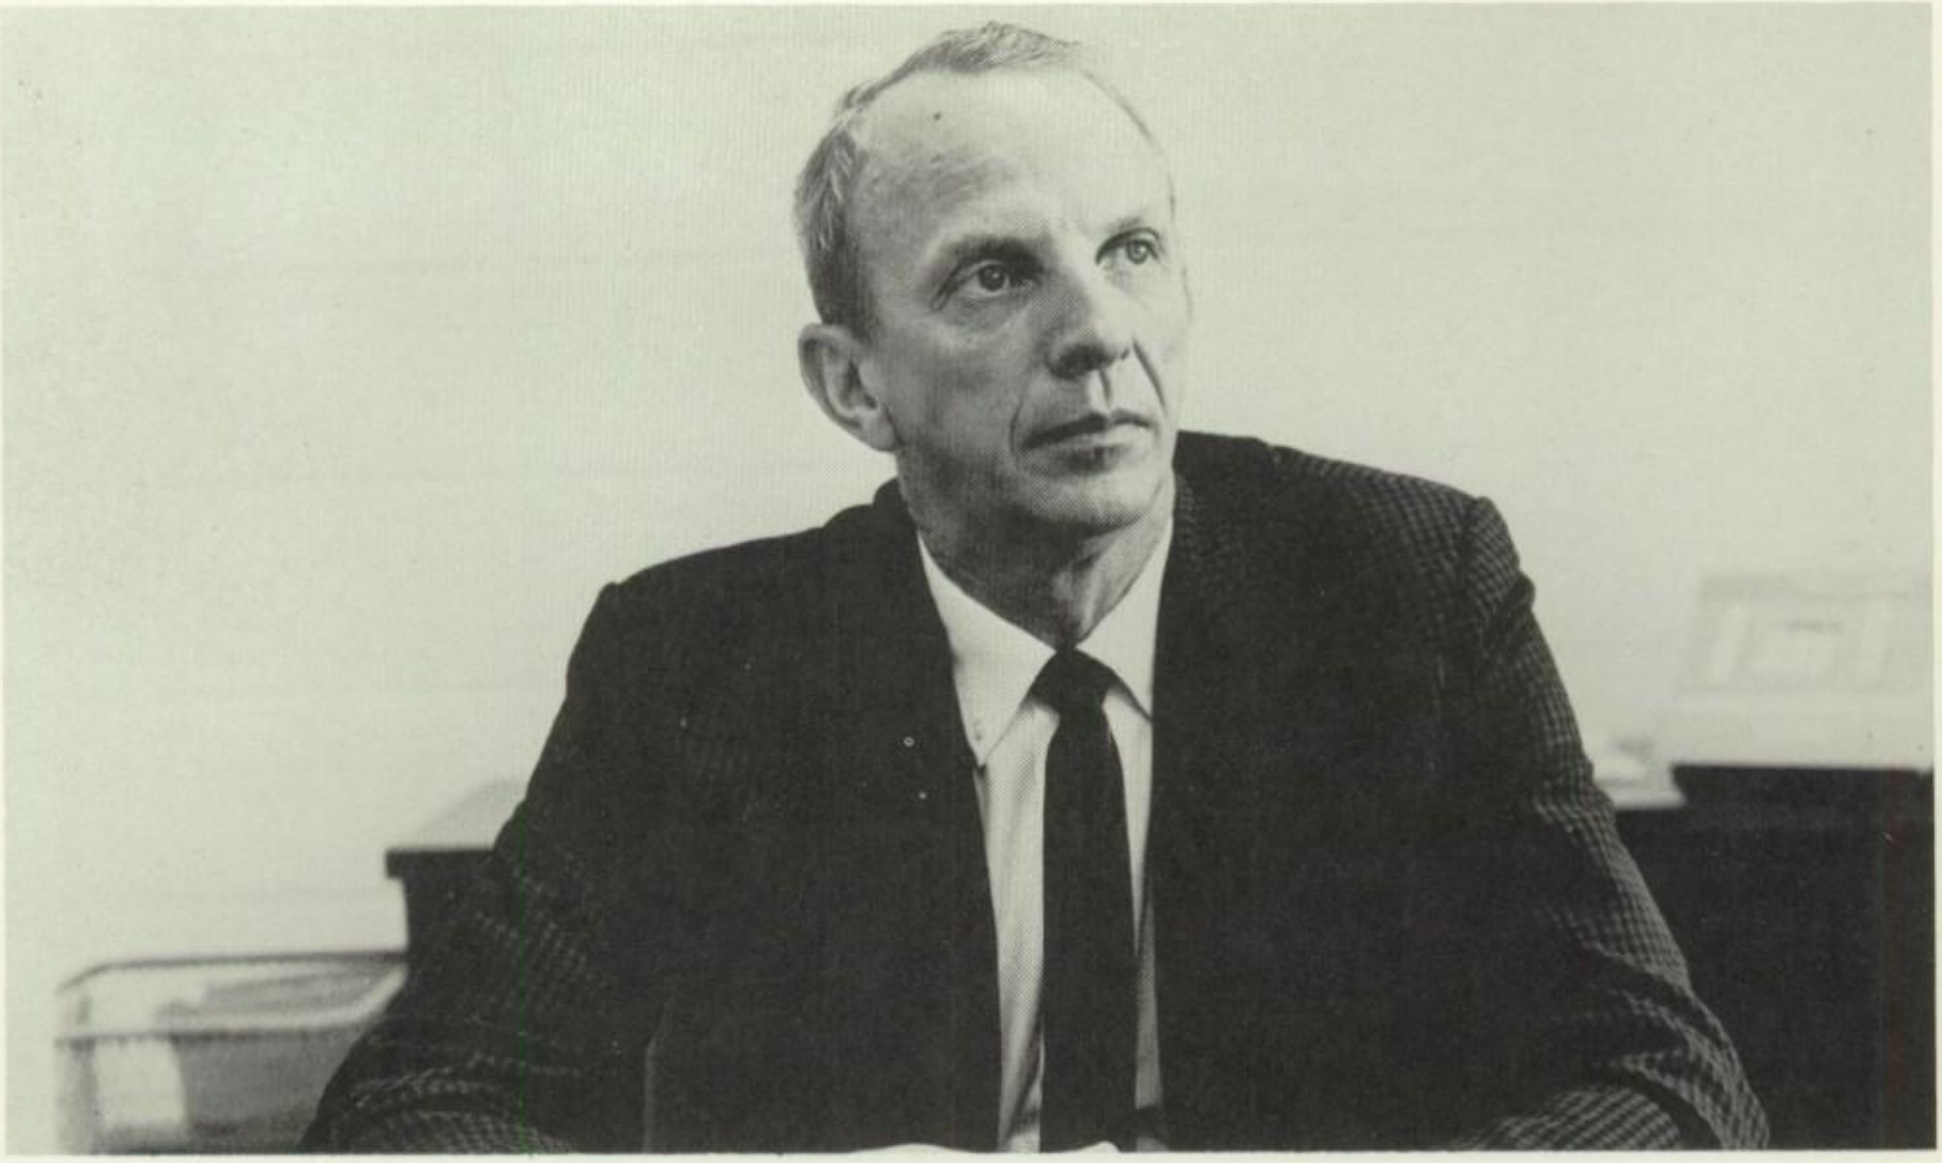
For Hours Long Spent ...



The 1965 YELLOW JACKET

Is Proudly DEDICATED

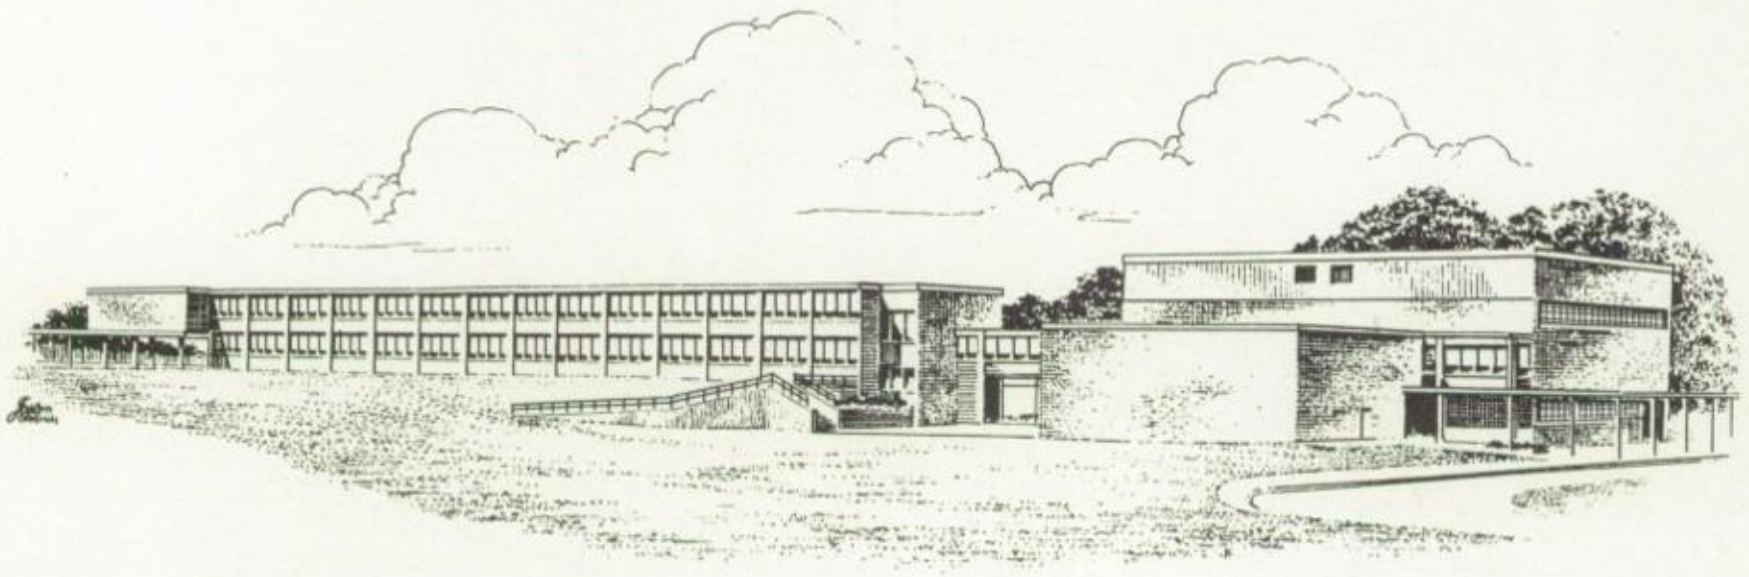
to

Mr. Charles Allen Johnson, Jr.

Mr. Johnson has been a part of the class of 1965 for twelve years, sharing our triumphs and our defeats, and always understanding and urging us onward to strive for high ideals and goals in life. Now he leaves with the class of 1965 for greater fields of endeavor.

In appreciation of his fourteen years of service as Superintendent of Starkville Public Schools, we affectionately dedicate this 1965 Yellow Jacket to Mr. Charles Allen Johnson, Jr.

An Evaluation of Our Ideals and Objectives

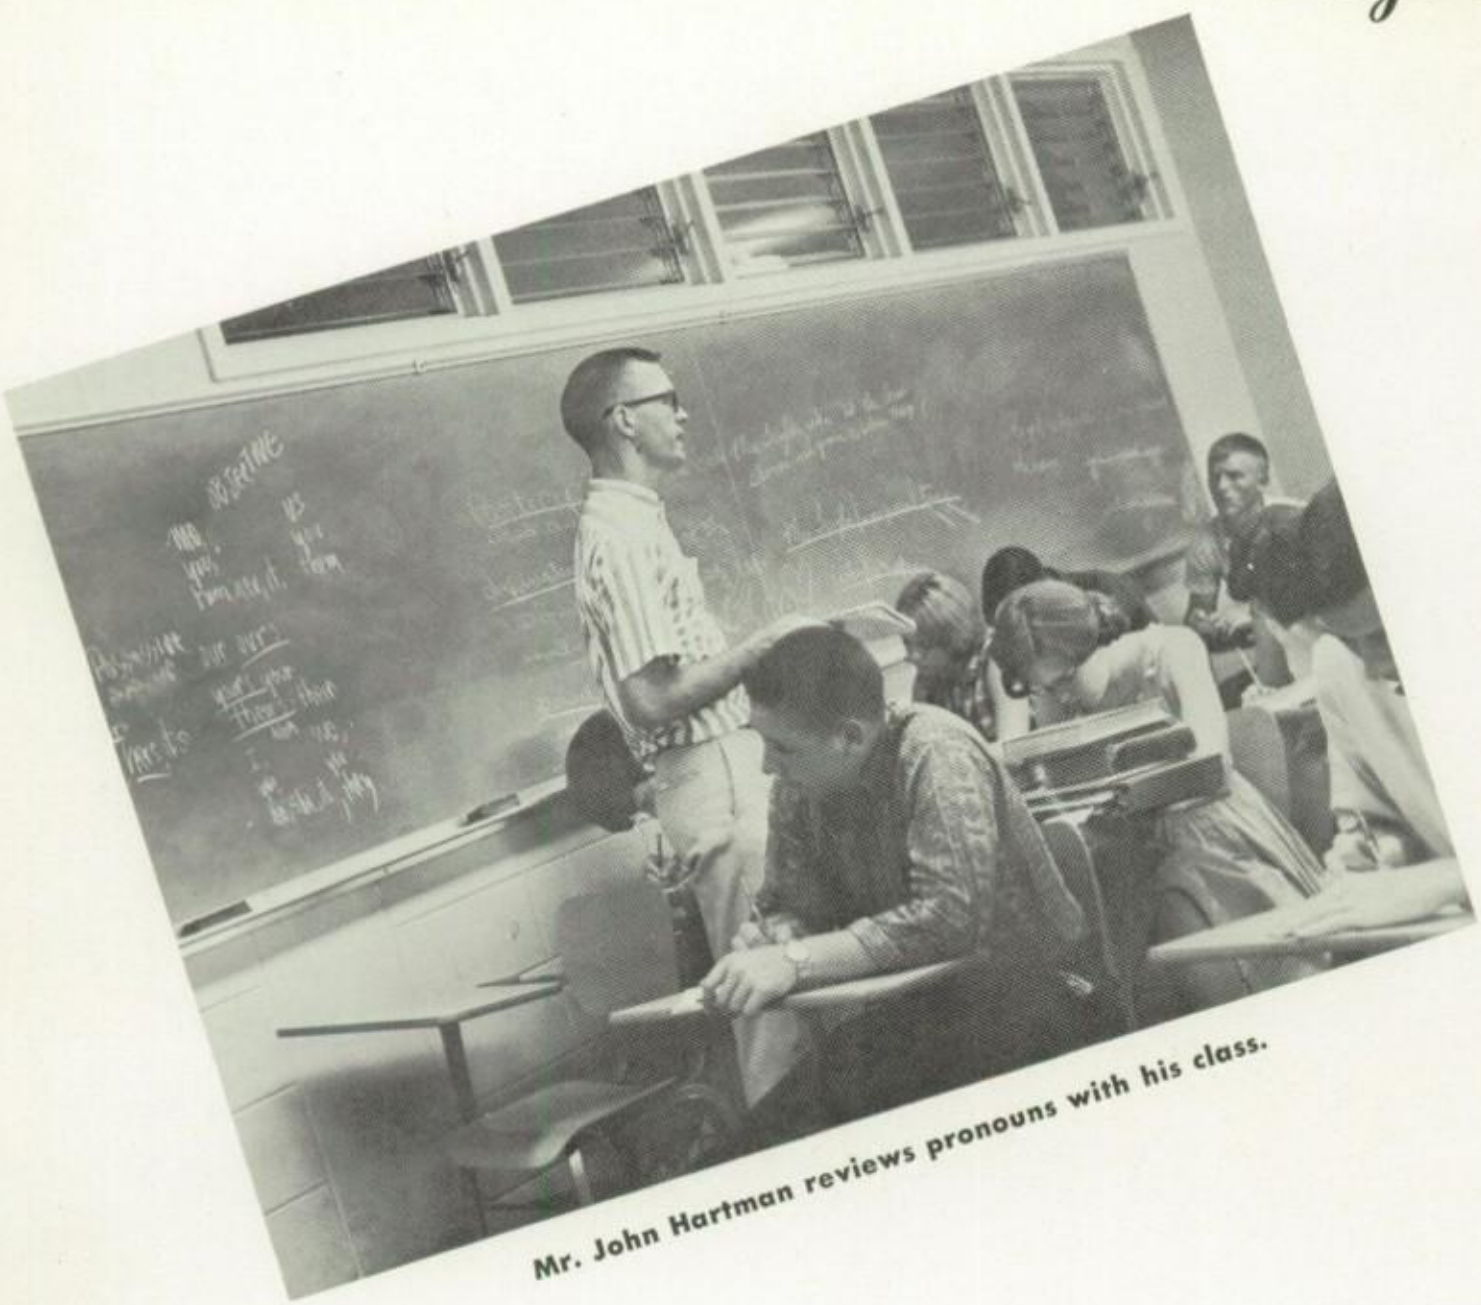


Our goal is perfection. Although this goal may never be reached, it provides an ideal, something for which to strive. It is through striving that we become better individuals, and it is through being better individuals that together we may have a better school.

That we reach perfection is not the most important thing. The significant thing is that we strive for it. Goethe once said, "I find the great thing in this world is not so much where we stand, as in what direction we are moving."

The 1965 Yellow Jacket presents an evaluation, from the student's point of view, of the ideals of Starkville High School in four major fields--academic, spiritual, physical, and social--and of the "direction in which we are moving" toward obtaining these ideals.

English-The Key



Mr. John Hartman reviews pronouns with his class.

Our bedrock subject is taught in a sequential pattern in a four-year study required for graduation. On a foundation of drills in mechanics, creative expression is stressed. SHS English students rank above the national average, according to standardized testing.

Mrs. Tom Didlake explains an assignment.

to Knowledge

Mrs. Gordon Bryan grades Charlie's English notebook.

Melba Blair received Civitan Essay Award.

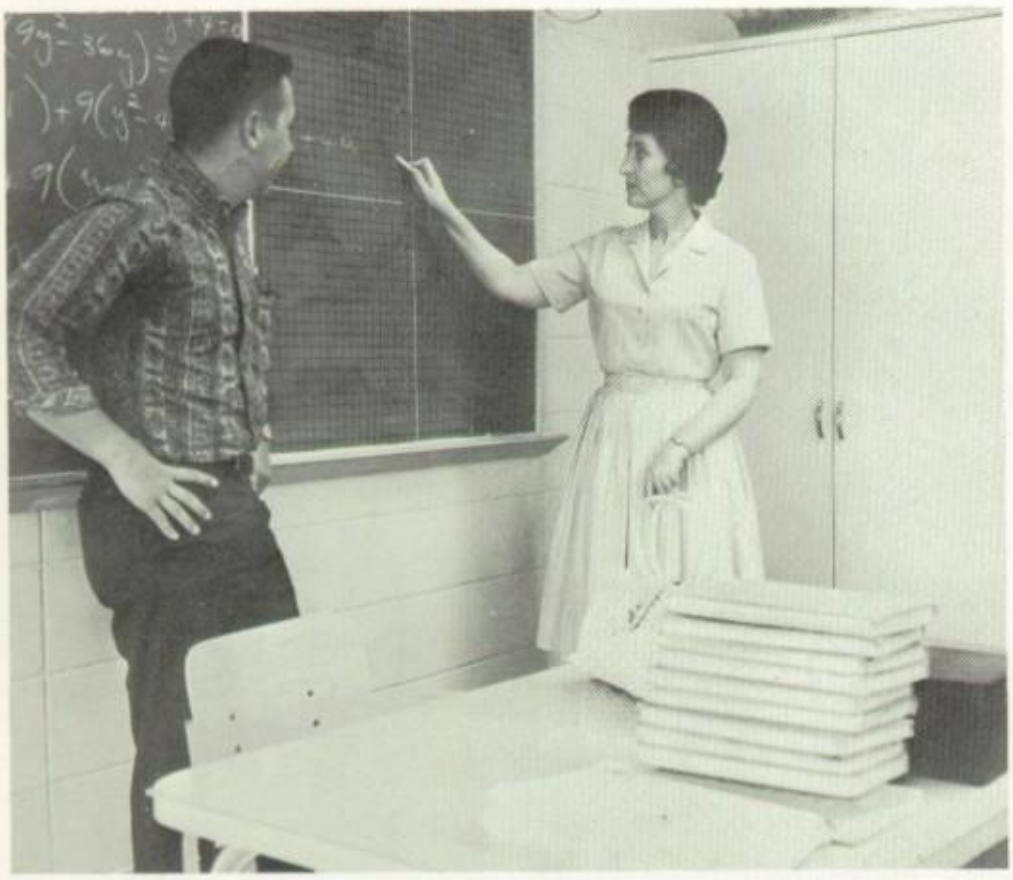
Mrs. Paul Gregory checks Oliver's speech outline.

Knowing what to say and how to say it is the objective of Speech study. Juniors and Seniors work for relaxed but controlled thinking, voice, posture, and bodily action.

Mrs. Enoch Gregory helps Jo Ellen with a math problem.

Mrs. Lethal Hodges presents Judy Hare with the Math Award.

Mathematics



Mrs. Lethal Hodges plots a graph for her math class.

SHS accepts the challenge presented by the new trends and demands of science and technology. An extensive mathematics program is emphasized at SHS. It consists of general math, and SMSG courses in Algebra I and II, Plane and Solid Geometry, Trigonometry, and Advanced Math.

The program is fast-growing and up-to-date in the concepts of mathematics, as well as in new methods of teaching it.

Home Economics

Mrs. Rush Valentine helps Brenda with the finer points of Home Making.

Large classes take the elective two years of Home Economics offered at SHS. Homemaking as a course includes a study of foods, a clothing unit, a marriage unit, a family relations unit, and a housing unit. Field trips and resource speakers are features during the year which keep the students aware of new methods, products, and equipment.

Mrs. Valentine presents Judy Hare with the Betty Crocker Homemaker Award.

Building for a Future

Patricia Long, President of Senior F.H.A., presents Katherine Self with the Home Ec Award.

Celeste Scales, President of Junior FHA, presents BB Lewis with the Home Ec Award.

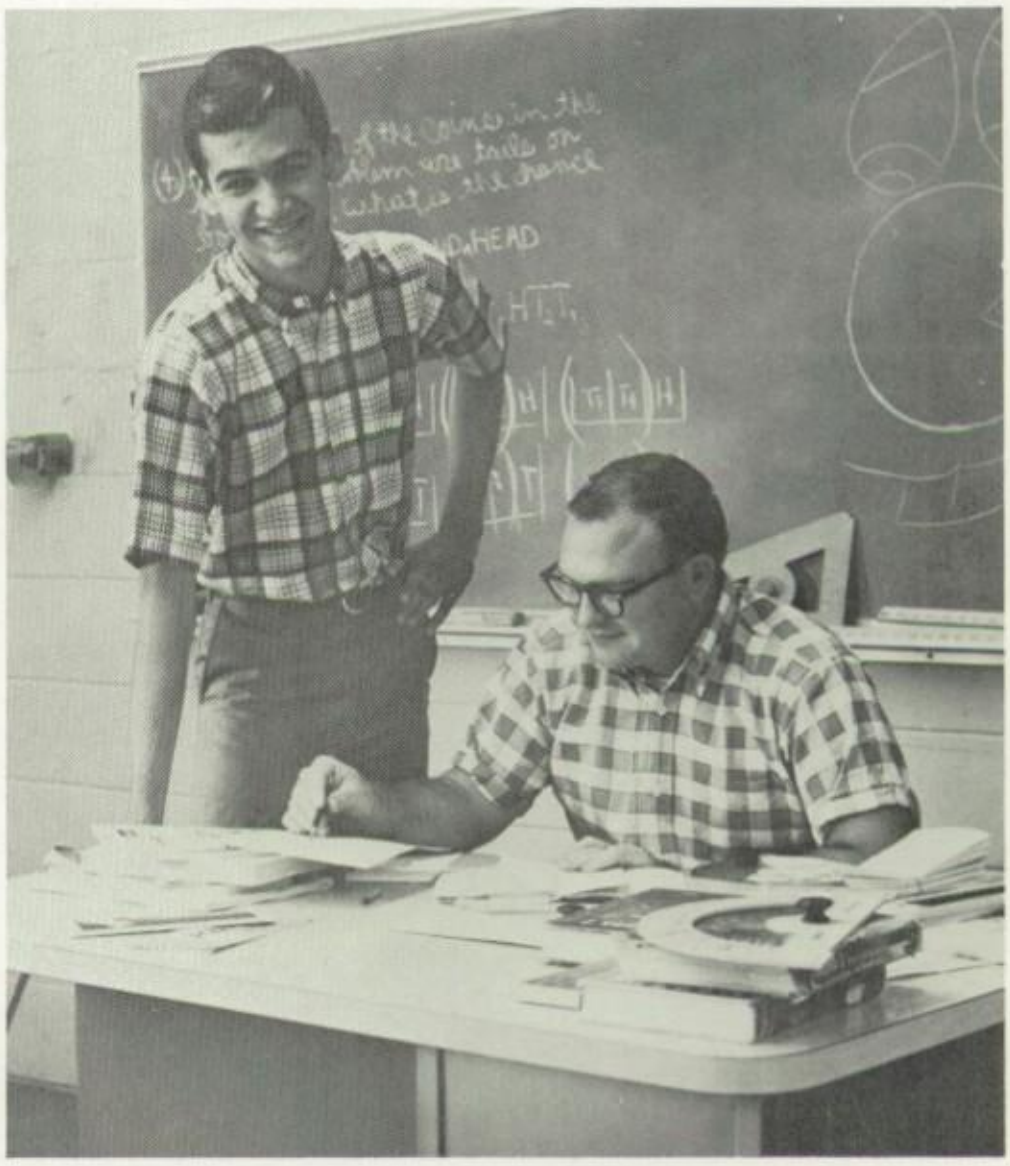
Science - Plays an

General Science familiarizes the SHS students with the physical world in which they live and with the laws and principles which govern it.

The Chemistry student studies the composition and structure of substances and the changes which they undergo. Weekly labs emphasize class work.

Mrs. Felix Edwards helps Jack with a chemistry problem.

Mrs. John Lusk presents Jamey Barrentine with the Bausch and Optical Company Award.



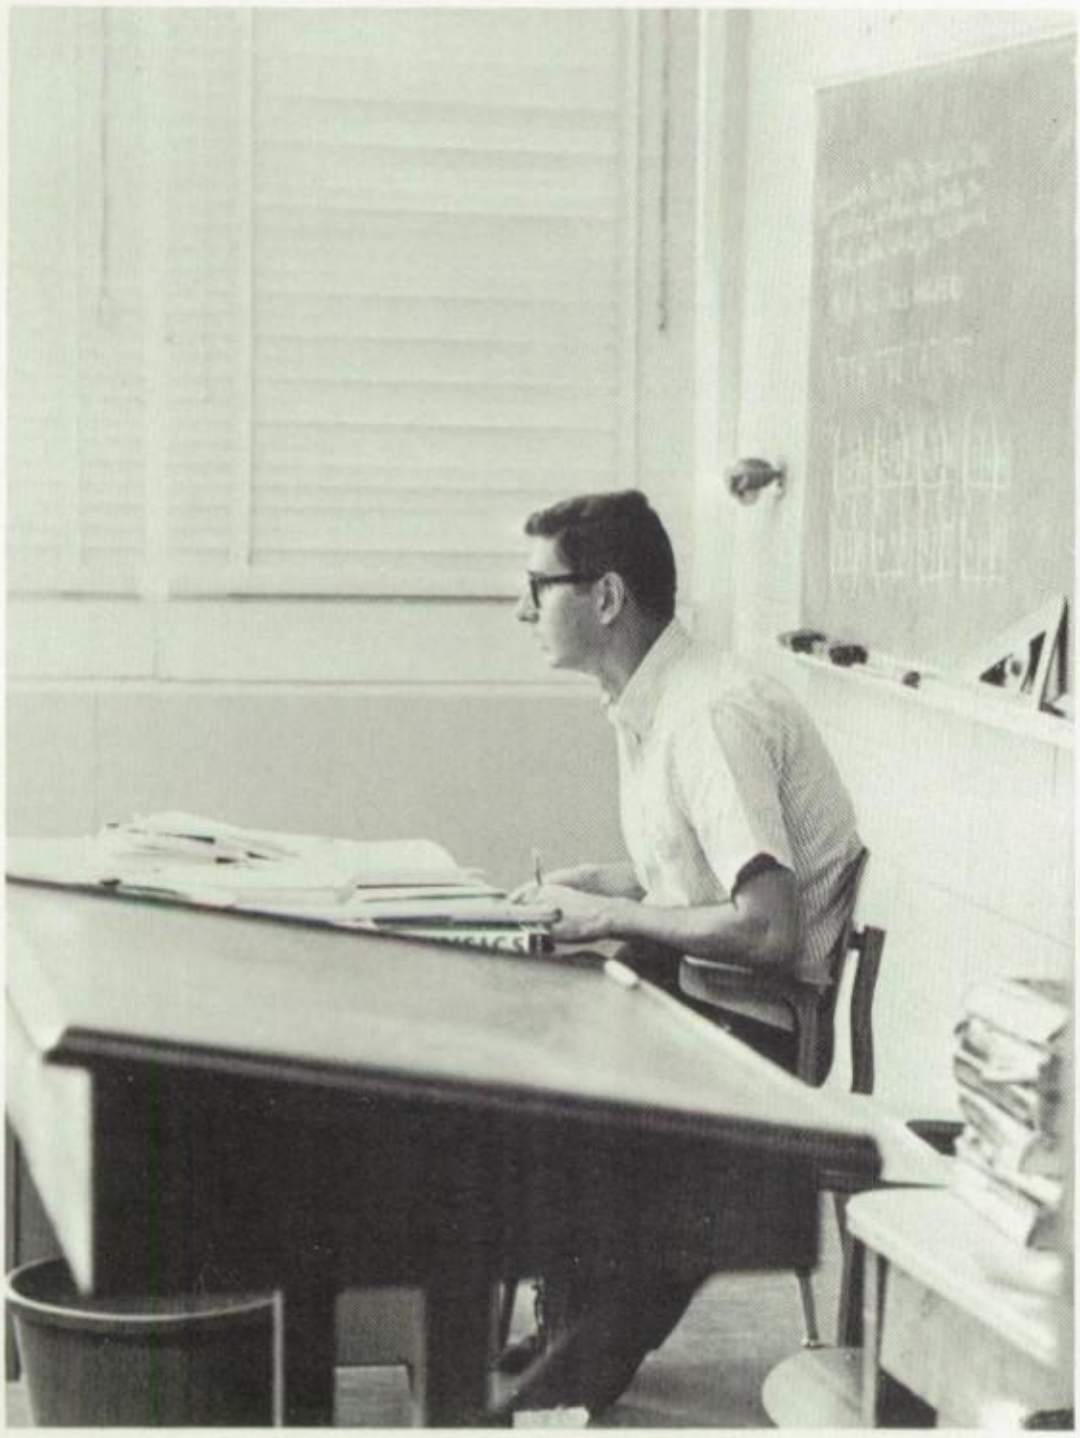
Bert has his answers checked by Mr. Edsel Stuart.

Essential Role

The study of physics offers SHS advanced students understanding of the concepts of motion, force, energy, heat, electricity, and magnetism.

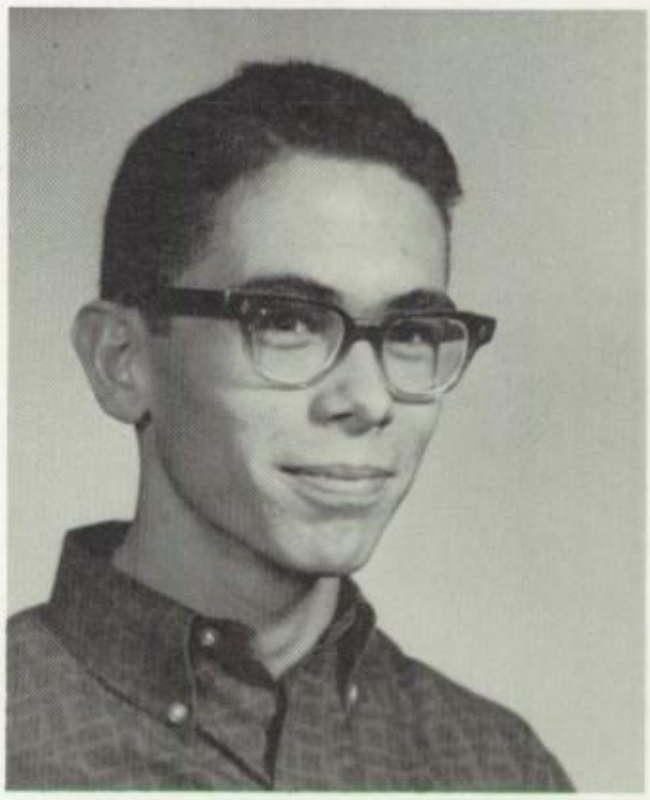
Biology is studied in three parts: Zoology, genetics, and botany. Major projects of SHS biologists are insect collections and research projects for science fairs. Advanced biology delves into human anatomy.

Mrs. John Lusk tests her students on plant identification.



Mr. Dan Pate reviews for a physics test.

Mrs. Felix Edwards supervises a chemistry lab experiment.



Larry Mitlin won first place at the State Science Fair in the biology division of the Academy of Science Speeches.

Wilmer Rivers and Beth Hogan win the Latin Award.

<image_ ref="2" box="1:0.504,0.083,0.960,0.803" />

Mrs. Brooks congratulates Wilmer Rivers for winning the Latin Scholarship.

Aid to Communication

Foreign Languages...

Latin

In two years study of Latin offered at SHS, grammar, word derivation, mythology, and Roman life and history are covered. A third year class is being planned for advanced work in translations of Cicero and Virgil.

<image_ ref="3" box="2:0.338,0.150,0.955,0.907" />

Mrs. Burrow Brooks helps Clark with the translation.

French

The language lab is used extensively in the "Hear, say, see" approach to the two years study of Spanish and French offered at SHS.

Winning the Citizenship Awards for foreign language essays are: Linda Bryant, 1st place; Charles Watts, 2nd place; and Ann Burns, 3rd place. The awards were presented by Mr. Bowker and Col. Gewinner.

Peggy Peden earns the Language Award.

Mrs. Scott Osborn reviews French grammar with her class.

Mrs. Jerry Simmons helps Betty with translation.

Spanish

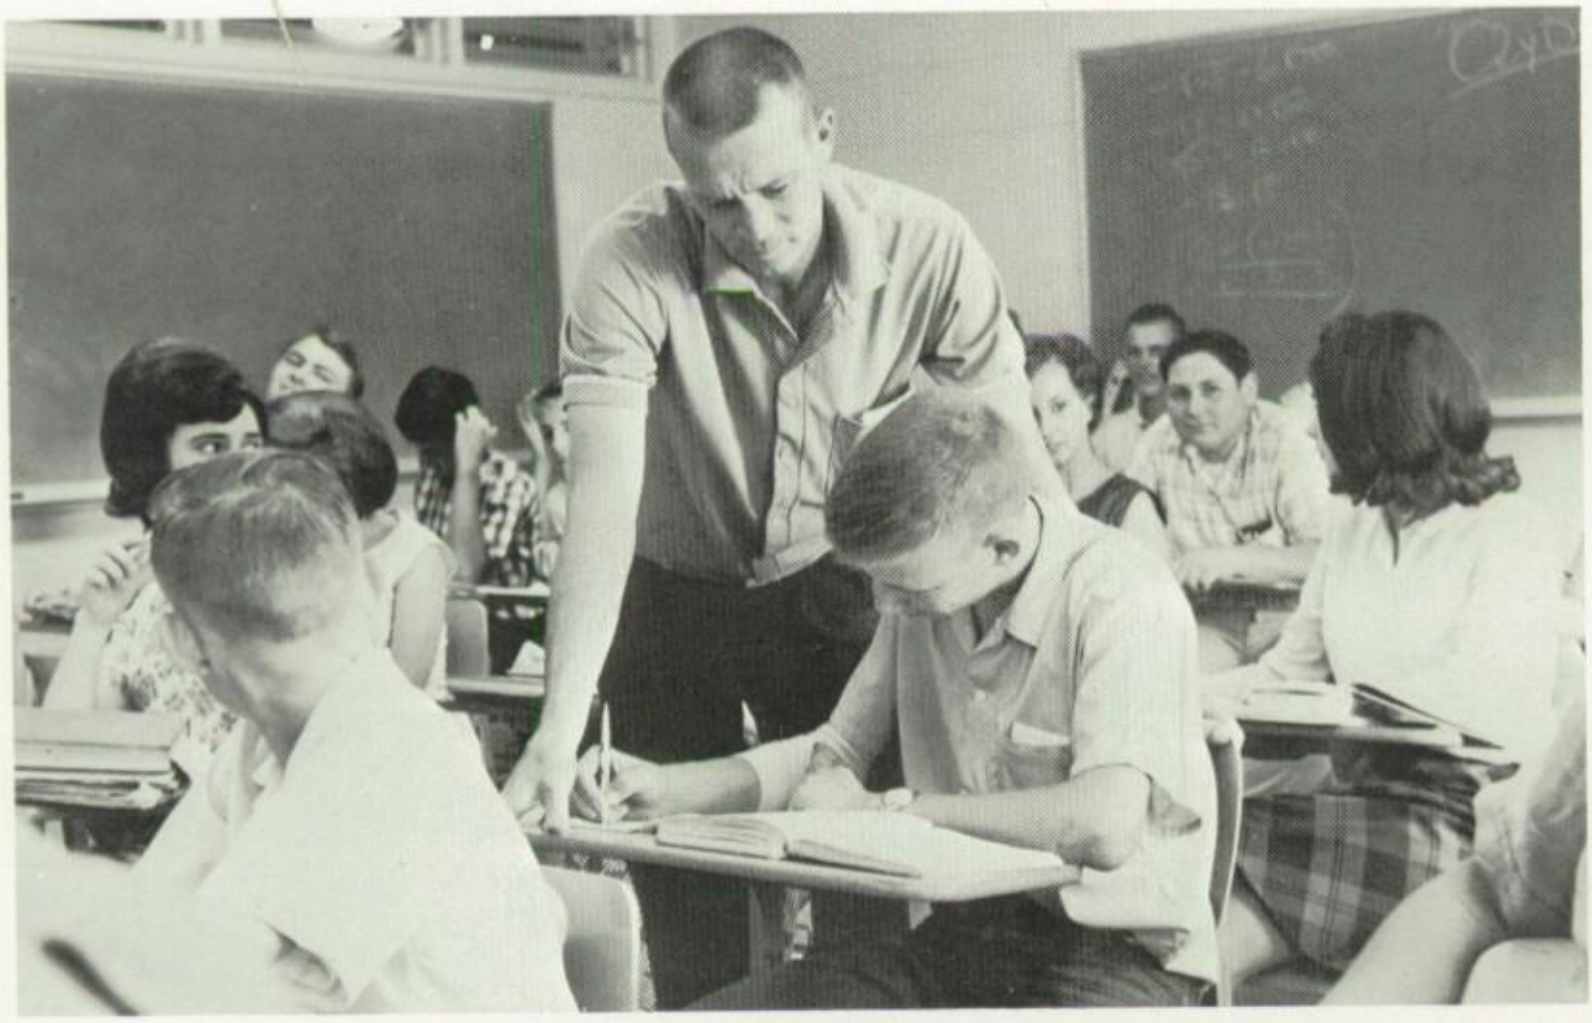
Spanish- and French-speaking people visit the language classes to give the students a broader knowledge of their countries and languages.

Social Studies

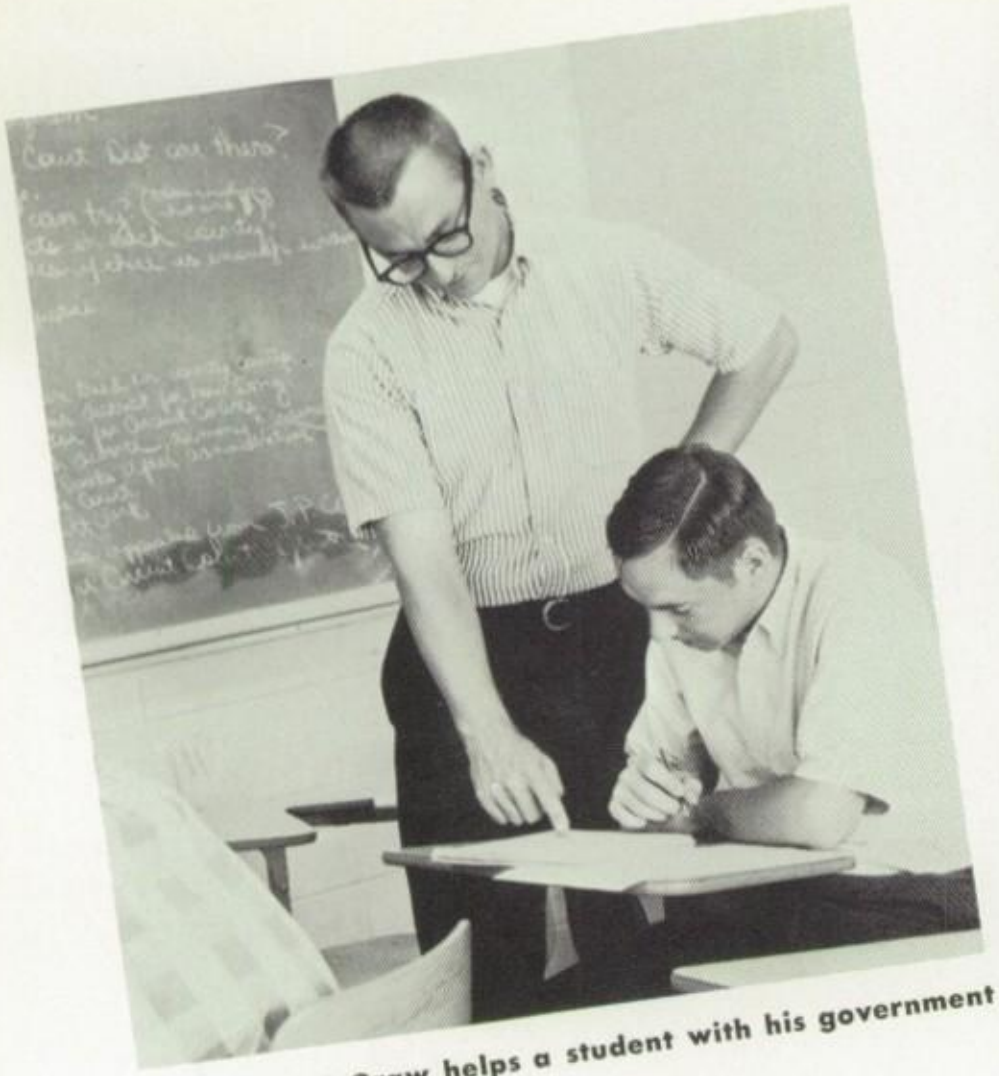
MISSISSIPPI HISTORY AND CIVICS

Every SHS student is helped to inform himself of the past, to interpret the present, and to sense the trends of the future through the study of the political, social, and economic development of the state of Mississippi from the time of its earliest inhabitants to the present. This study of Mississippi History is required for all students, and is combined with the study of the duties, rights, and privileges of the citizens of the United States.

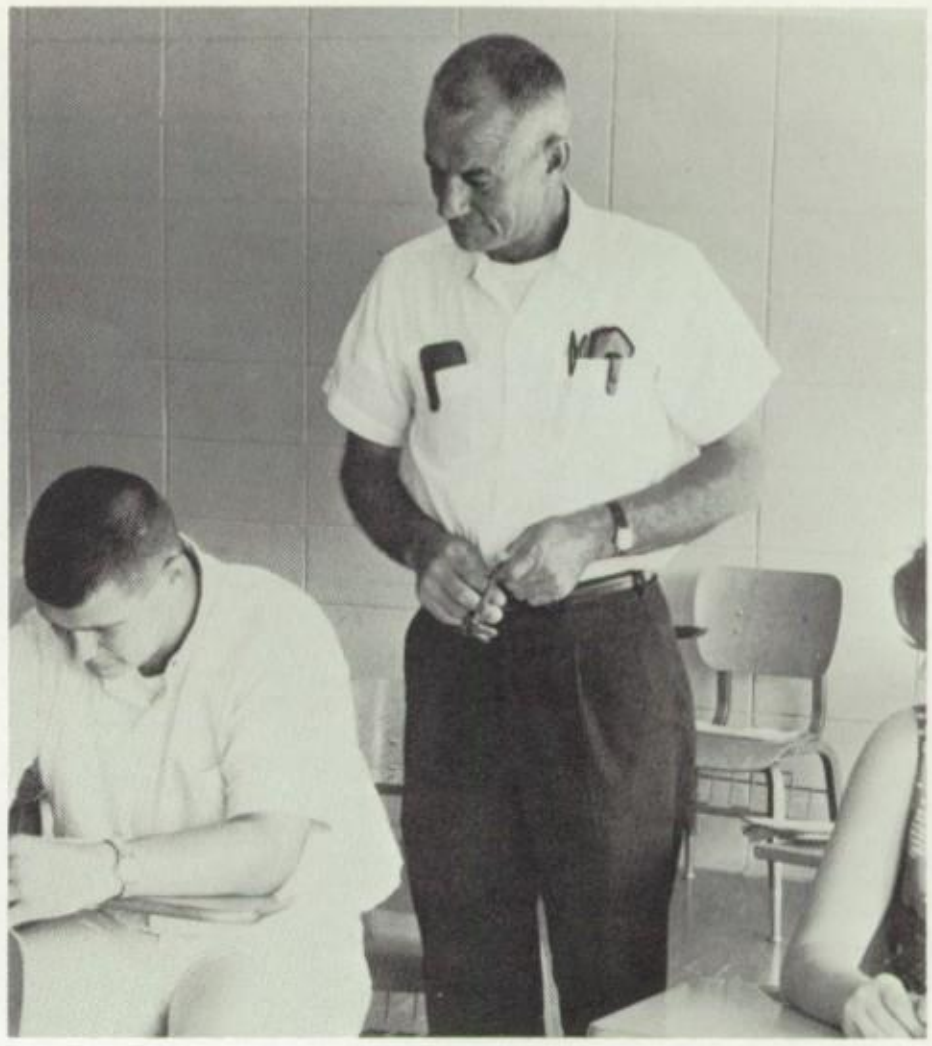
Melissa Holland and Charlie Merwine receive the Mississippi History Award.



Glen gets assistance with his history notes from Mr. Don Johnson.



Mr. Dickie McGraw helps a student with his government notes.



Mr. Jack Nix watches Terry as he studies for a world history exam.

...The World at Your Fingertips

Mrs. Henry Butts points out important facts and places to history students.

The beginnings of democracy, our democratic ideals, the Constitution, personages, and current events are emphasized in American History classes. Every student gives a report on interesting subjects every six weeks.

American Government classes offer actual observation and participation in local and state governmental procedures along with class study and discussion.

World History classes show that many happenings and problems of the present have roots in the past.

Mrs. Rex Colwick watches while students take a 5-minute writing.

Mrs. Scott Wofford presents typing awards.

Commercial Arts

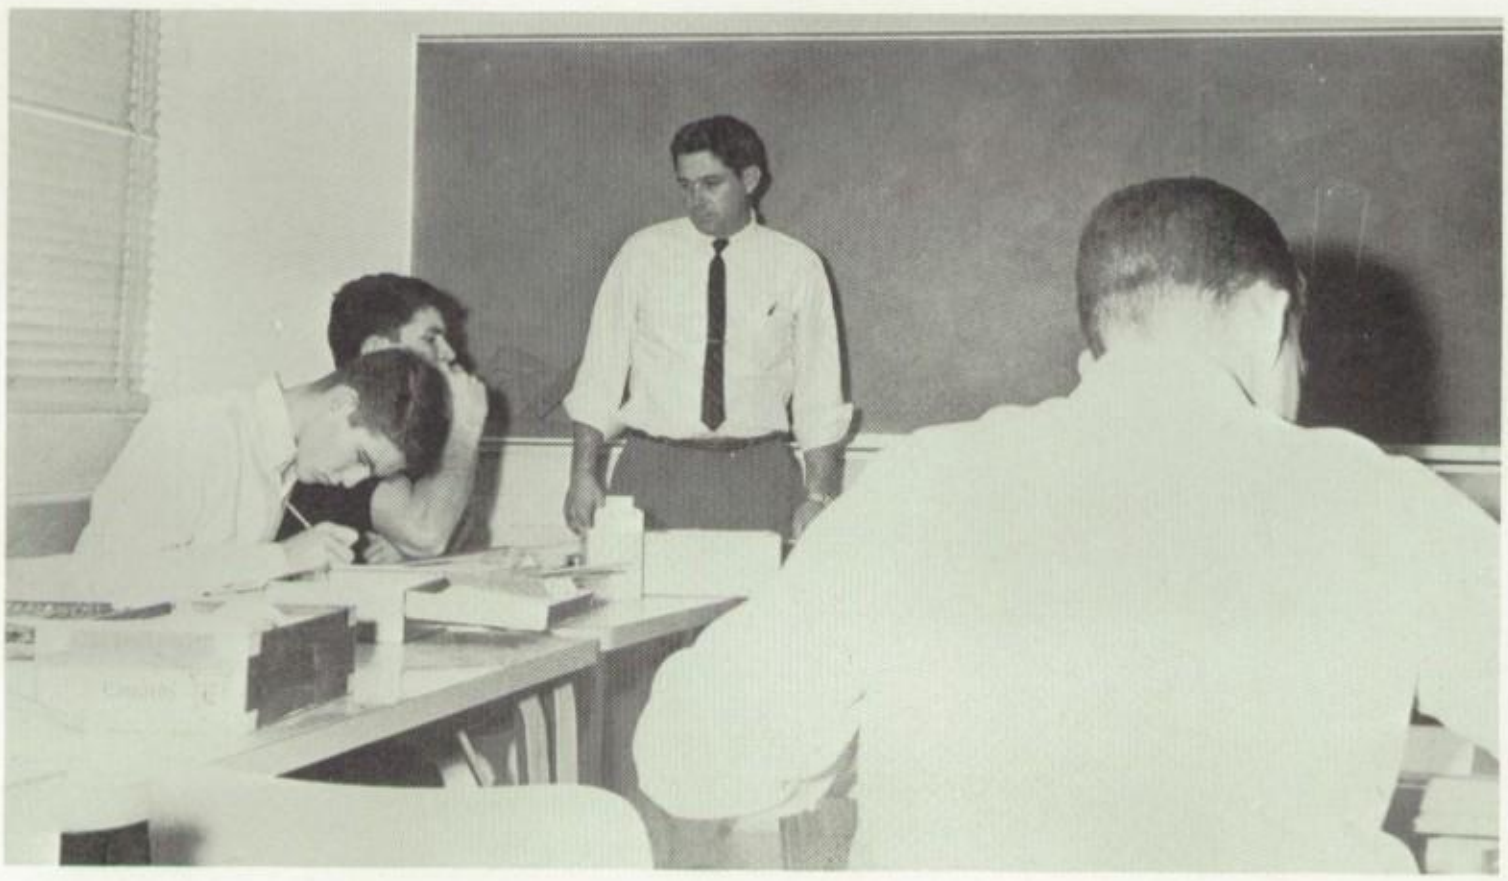
COMMERCIAL ARTS

In typing, shorthand, bookkeeping, and clerical office practice classes, students learn about the practices and procedures used in business. Typing offers value for personal use as well as for use in business. Shorthand is for students who have acquired skill in typing and who have a sound English background. Clerical office practice provides information about the clerical occupations in offices and develops qualification and skills of those interested in such occupations.

Mechanical Drawing



Mr. Troy Bostick looks over Mike's house plans.

Diversified Occupations

The D. O. Program provides an opportunity for juniors and seniors to prepare themselves for employment after graduation from high school through cooperative arrangements between the school and employers in the community. The D. O. students meet training class one period a day and receive a minimum of 15 hours of on-the-job training per week.

Mr. Bostick talks with his D. O. Class.

Bible

Mr. David McChesney talks with the Bible class.

BIBLE

Students in Bible class, an elective, study the Old and New Testaments for literary quality as well as for religious growth.

Dian Anderson and Peggy Adams receive Bible Award. This award is based on character and grades in class.

Art

Preparing for art exhibit.

Mrs. Cohenour displays first grade art with the assistance of Vernon Muse.

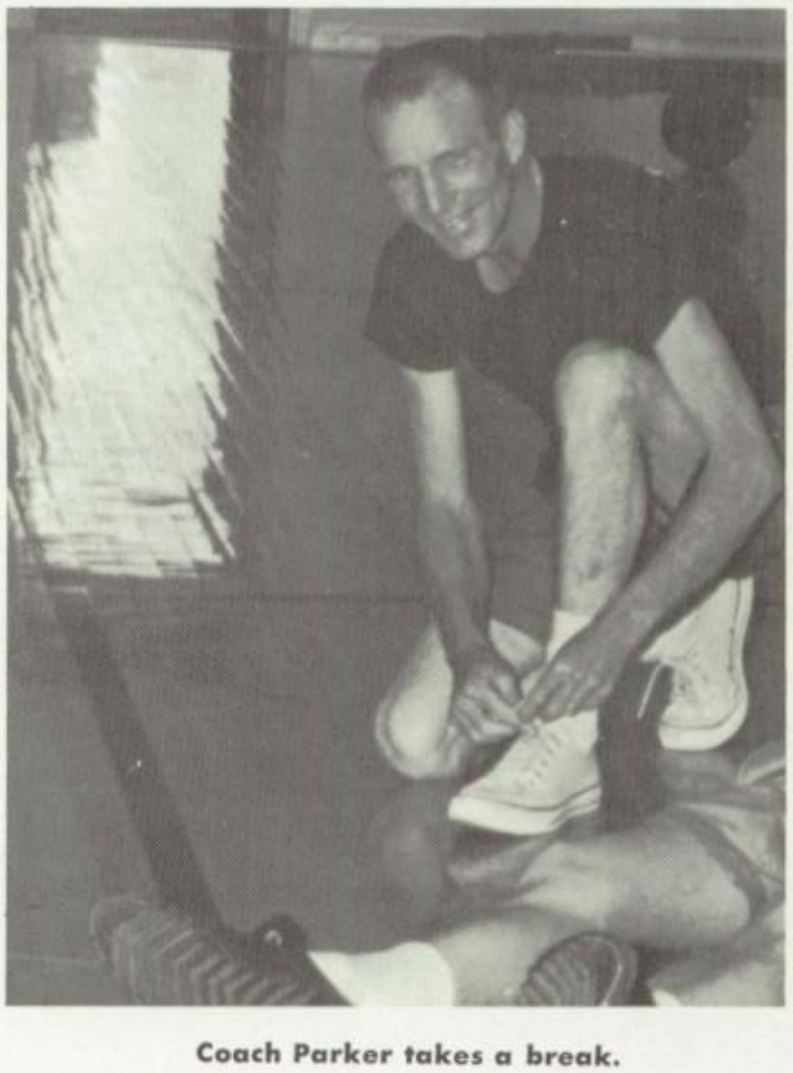
In art class, students learn to express themselves in water colors, pastels, and temporas. Guest artists visit the class and talk with the students, and each art student is required to do research on a famous painter.

Fitness First

Coach Craig gives Kermit instructions.

PHYSICAL EDUCATION

Objectives in physical development, stamina, and emotional stability are achieved through physical education participation in freshman and sophomore classes and a four-year sports program at SHS. P.E. combines with other school subjects to educate students in the many qualities which will develop them for happiest living.



Coach Parker takes a break.

Mrs. Parker, girls P. E. instructor, also coaches tennis. Here she is recognizing the tennis team for their outstanding record.

Mr. Dan Pate enjoys a softball game with his students.

Counseling

Mrs. Atkinson supervises National Merit Scholarship Test.

Our Guidance Counselor works closely with the Administration and teachers in understanding pupils and diagnosing and meeting their needs. In addition to testing pupils for aptitudes, abilities, and interests, Mrs. Atkinson holds student-parent-school conferences discussing personal problems, planning vocational preparation, and scheduling classes.

Library...

Mrs. Coleman Taylor, librarian.

SHS library contains extensive reference and research material, including encyclopedias, maps, magazines, newspapers, biographical and general content yearbooks, and clipping files. The shelves contain approximately 3,500 books of fiction and non-fiction.

Study Hall

Mr. Sam Parker keeps an eye on study hall.

Band

Band receives medals for All Superiors.

The Starkville High School Band is made up of a Concert Band and a Marching Band. The Marching Band plays at all home town football games and in parades, and at several out-of-town football games each year. The Concert Band presents concerts each season and competes in the State Band Contest each year in April. The SHS Band received All-Superiors for the ninth consecutive year at contest. Individual members take part in District and State Clinics, Solo and Ensemble Contests, and the Lions All-State Band.

Mr. Kelly Love rehearses festival music with the Band.

Chorus

The Starkville High School Chorus has an average of forty members. With sextet and triple trio ensembles. The Chorus presents seasonal programs throughout the school year and competes at the District and State Choral Festivals.

Mrs. Andrew Fox directs the Chorus in a Christmas program.

Glee Club pins received by Paula Duncan, Linda Whitmarsh, and Nancy Bettersworth.

National Honor Society

Student Council for 1964-65

The Student Advisory Council, composed of the presidents of the school organizations, framed a new constitution and sponsored the selection of a school crest this year.

Home-coming and Who's Who elections were organized and supervised by the Council.

In May the SHS Council played host to the Little Ten Student Council Conference and was elected president of that organization for '65-'66.

Student body honors Mr. and Mrs. Johnson.

Registration is set up for Association of Little Ten Student Councils meeing held at SHS.

Dear Students,

The "Greatest Class Alive" is proud to present, in our opinion, the greatest yearbook yet. The 1965 YELLOW JACKET represents many "firsts" for Starkville High. We have changed from padded covers to hardback format. We have included more pictorial reviews of happenings and we have used paper of improved quality and heavier texture to make this the biggest YELLOW JACKET ever. We have added a new academic section to give a better picture of SHS's outstanding academic program. We have included more pictorial reviews of happenings and people at our school.

The most important "first", however, is the fact that all the pictures were made and developed by our own student photographers with new equipment purchased by the yearbook. We hope that this "first" will be the beginning of a Department of Photography at SHS. Special recognition should go to our photographers Jamie Barrentine and David Guice for the fine work they have done and the many hours they have spent at the school developing and printing the pictures you have seen.

As Editors-In-Chief of your 1965 YELLOW JACKET, it has been a privilege to bring to you a picture of our school as it strives to help us become what we have in us to become—mentally, spiritually, physically, and socially.

We hope you will enjoy this book as much as we have enjoyed editing it for you.

Sincerely,

Suzanne and Jerry
